The Musical

Adapted for the Stage by

Leslie Bricusse & Timothy Allen McDonald

Music & Lyrics by

Leslie Bricusse & Anthony Newley

Based on the book, Charlie and the Chocolate Factory,
by Roald Dahl

Directed By
Kate Smith

Featuring the enchanting songs from the 1971 film starring Gene Wilder and new songs by Leslie Bricusse (Jekyll & Hyde, Doctor Dolittle) and Anthony Newley, Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka is a scrumdilyumptious musical. Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka follows enigmatic candy manufacturer, Willy Wonka, as he stages a contest by hiding golden tickets in five of his scrumptious candy bars.

Whoever comes up with these tickets will win a free tour of the Wonka factory, as well as a lifetime supply of candy. Four of the five winning children are insufferable brats: the fifth is a likeable young lady named Charlie Bucket, who takes the tour in the company of his equally amiable grandfather. The children must learn to follow Mr. Wonka's rules in the factory... or suffer the consequences.

A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

I am so honored to bring such a loveable story to The Barn stage. I believe that a successful Director is created by assembling an exceptional team, and I consider myself extremely lucky to have had exactly that. Big thank you to my Assistant Director Melanie Tyler, Musical Director Kat Wills, Choreographer Stephani Berra, Producer Maria Mancebo and Stage Manager Erika Arcos; who leads the amazing backstage crew of Joy Contreras, Victor Serna, Ben Willett, Ethan Willett, Eve MoChori Arcos and Ethan Goodlett. I'd also like to say thank you to my husband, Nate, for designing such an amazing set that he built with help from Tony Berra, Steven Rogers and Dave Anderson. My amazing man took charge of all the set decorating alongside Jesika Bowker and Jessica Risvold, and he kindly put up with my assistance. Barbra Black's incredible eye and creative ideas were instrumental in bringing the costumes to life. I'm very grateful for her assistance. Shannon Satko and Kristin Redford, the talented seamstresses, truly impressed me with their skills. The costumes weren't complete without the help of Melanie Tyler and Ambree Bough. I can't forget about the willing moms, whom I call Oompa Wranglers, who hang out backstage to help: Stacie Crisp, Brittany Giannetto, Brenda Reyes, Erin Moore, and Tasha Anderson. My amazing Tech Crew led by Erik Tyler and Ash Morales along with Madeline Black and Damon Nelsen. Thank you to The Barn Theater Board for trusting me to Direct. I've enjoyed every moment of being creative with all the cast and crew, and was so excited to bring so many new faces to the stage and behind the scenes. I'm honored to be called their Director. Thank you to everyone for enthusiastically supporting our creative efforts and embracing the show. As a mother of two amazing boys, I'll end with a nod to Wonka's mom by reminding everyone that the real magic happens with the people you share it with, not just the performance itself!

Meet the Cast

Michael Seitz as Willy Wonka

MICHAEL SEITZ is a recent graduate from UCSB with a BFA in acting. He has performed as Don Pedro(Much Ado About Nothing) with the Prague Shakespeare Company, and Judas(The Last Days of Judas Iscariot), Hlestakov(The Government Inspector), and Falstaff(Death of Kings) with UC Santa Barbara. He has also performed as Macduff(Macbeth) and Andrew Jackson(Bloody Bloody Andrew Jackson) at College of the Sequoias, and Jaime(The Last Five Years), Mortimer(Arsenic and Old Lace), and Bernstein(Dogfight) at the Icehouse Theater. He is excited to be back home and performing at a new place with a cast that has been nothing but welcoming and kind. He would like to thank his family, friends, and girlfriend Megan for their love and support as he pursues acting.

Ava Anderson as Charlie Bucket

15 year old Ava Anderson is playing the role of Charlie Bucket. She has played only one other role, Diana Barry in Anne of Green Gables (2023). Now she is incredibly excited for the opportunity to participate in her second play. The experience she has had with her fellow cast mates has been the funnest experience. Some of her interests outside of acting are reading, crocheting, exercising, and drawing. She also loves Jesus more than anything. She wants to thank her family, and her bestie for the support they have given her.

Meet the Cast

Dan Rhoads as Grandpa Joe

This is the first time Dan Rhoads has been on the Barn Theater stage. The last time he was in a play was in the early 1980s at Porterville College. During the years in between, he mostly spent his time hanging out in libraries. Fortunately for him, they paid him to do so. Retired now, you'll usually find him with a song on his lips or a book in his hand, with the occasional puppet on the other hand. One reason Dan has enjoyed playing Grandpa Joe is because it has given him the chance to pretend to be old.

Melissa Kirkpatrick as Mrs. Bucket

Melissa Kirkpatrick is a Music Therapist and a mom of 3 beautiful children, Morgan, Christian, and Hayden. You may remember her as Lady Thiang from "The King and I" or Emily Hobbs from "Elf The Musical." She loves the Barn Theatre and all of the amazing friends she has made there.

Benjamin Willett as Mr. Bucket

Benjamin has been hiding in the shadows at the Barn since 2015 and recently made his stage debut in Anne of Green Gables. Outside of the Barn, Benjamin works as a professor at Porterville College, enjoys writing, and going on adventures with his family. He has had the privilege of working backstage on many plays, and is thrilled to be a part of this show under Kate's direction.

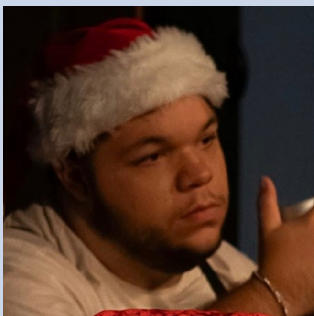

Meet the Cast

Ethan Willett as The Candyman

& Wonka Understudy

This is Ethan: ••• How d'you do? And how d'you do? He is pleased to meet you. Ethan started acting at the Barn Theater in 2015, but he's been one goofy meatball long before then. Since the average person reading this is probably older than him, you've probably seen him here before. Perhaps you've seen him wearing his should-be-signature black overcoat, or perhaps you've seen him falling down. His favorite show is either Newsies or Les Misérables. His favorite show that he's done here is probably anything that Denise Everhart directed. He likes singing and acting, but less so dancing. I don't like almonds. I'm avid about LEGO and I make my own movies. I don't -- Woops, I changed to first person. I was told I couldn't do this, but... here we are. Kat Wills has now taken me hostage and locked me in my room until I admit that the 1971 Willy Wonka movie is the best one. She says if I don't then I'll be stuck in first person forever, and that she'll lower my singing voice down an octave so I can't project as well. I can't... I have to fight back. I'm going to say it.... I don't like the 1971 version of Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory! I think it's a terrible adaptation and a mediocre movie! The 2005 version is the FAR SUPERIOR VERSION.. AHhh cferx njm muffle muffle scurry

Darian Martinez as Grandpa George

Darian is very excited to be a part of Willy Wonka! He was most recently a part of Elf The Musical here at the Barn. He will also be stage managing Misery here in the summer and hopes you come and watch!!

Nancy Wills as Grandma Georgina

Nancy Wills is playing Grandma Georgina. Nancy has participated in several Barn Productions: she played Mother Superior in Drinking Habits 1 and 2, an ancestor in Adam's Family, and she was the musical director for Young Frankenstein. In her free time, Nancy enjoys playing the guitar, reading, playing the guitar, hiking, and playing the guitar.

Meet the Cast

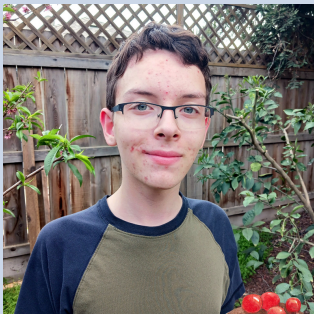

Vera Bennet as Grandpa Josephine

Vera is very excited to be making her California debut at the Barn Theater. As soon as she saw the stage she knew she was home. She moved to Porterville to become the area's newest pediatrician in December and was thrilled to find that there was an active community theater program to feed her other passion. Vera enjoyed many roles in New Jersey and Arizona community theaters over the years. Some of her favorite roles include First Voice in Under Milk Wood (think Our Town), Anna Andreyevna in The Government Inspector and Shirley Markowitz in The Producers. She would like to thank the cast and crew of the Barn Theater for welcoming her into their fold and giving her the opportunity to act again – maybe next time she will even get some blocking...

Daniel Satko as Augustus Gloop

Daniel Satko is sixteen years old and has been working with the Barn Theater since 2016. In this musical, he is playing the role of the loveable, chocolate-loving, greedy, fat kid, Augustus Gloop. His favorite acting credits are the French Chef Louis in The Little Mermaid, Jr. and Michael Hobbs in Elf: The Musical, which is his favorite play that he has done here. He's also homeschooled and is currently a junior in high school, but when he's not doing schoolwork, he's usually either reading books of various genres, baking desserts, playing piano, or just watching fun movies. He has had a fantastic time working on this musical with such talented people, and he hopes you'll enjoy it!

Jamie Wimmer as Mrs. Gloop

Jamie has chosen the Barn Theatre to make her theatrical debut. A recent empty nester, Jamie spends most of her time infuriating her five adult children by spending their inheritance on her fur baby, Django. Together they enjoy mom and dog spa days, learning new activities like paddle boarding, and their favorite pastime, searching for Sasquatch in the Sierra Nevadas. When not adventuring, Jamie loves watching horror movies, listening (and singing just a little off key) to music, and discovering new ways to appreciate the world around her.

Meet the Cast

Ellie Berra

as Mika Teavee

Hello! My name is Ellie Berra and I play the role of Mika Teavee in Willy Wonka. I am 14 years old and attend Porterville High School. This is my 5th musical. I have been main characters in two productions; Flounder in The Little Mermaid, and Elsa in Frozen. Besides Wonka, I am in ensemble for Once on This Island at Porterville High School. I hope you enjoy the show, and the rest of your day!

Barbra Black

as Mrs. Teavee

Barbra's second life at The Barn has included performances in Mamma Mia, Young Frankenstein, Anne of Green Gables, and most recently appeared as Mrs. Claus in Elf. This is the first time she will not be sharing the stage with anyone in her family although her daughter, Mads is working on the tech team.

Sara Satko

as Violet Beauregard

Sara Satko is a freshman in high school. She is homeschooled and is taking classes at Porterville College. This is her sixth production at the Barn Theater, and her favorite role has been Anne in Anne of Green Gables. In her free time, she enjoys tap dancing and singing Disney songs with her theater friends. Sara is thrilled to finally get to blow up on stage, and she would like to thank her orthodontist for not attending the show and discovering that she was chewing gum while still in braces.

Meet the Cast

Kristin Redford as Mrs. Beauregard

Kristin is happy to be joining this joyful cast at the Barn! She has been enjoying baking bread and seeing her poppies, daffodils, and nasturtiums bloom this spring. Her recent appearances at the Barn have included Change at Last (Lila), Putnam County Spelling Bee (Logainne), and Addams Family (Morticia). She'd like to thank her wonderful husband for his love and support!

Bailey Mancebo as Veruca Salt

Bailey Mancebo is 13 year old and plays the role of Veruca Salt! She is incredibly grateful for being casted as this part!! This is her 10th play overall but her 7th play at the barn theater! Her past credits at the Barn include ELF, The little mermaid Jr, Annie Jr, Frozen Jr, The king and I, and Anne of green gables! Bailey has been a dancer since the age of 3, and will be celebrating her 11th year of dance! She would like to thank everyone in her family for always supporting her but most of all her parents! Her mom is like her Taxi, she drives Bailey up and down porterville 5 nights a week to make sure her daughter can be involved in everything she desires! Yes it's a lot for her (And her bank account) But she always puts her kids first! Lastly she would like to thank her dad because even though she is sure she annoys him by always singing and dancing 24/7 he always supports her even when she's sure he would rather not sit through a 2 hour show/recital!

Todd Mathenia as Mr. Salt

Todd Mathenia (Mr. Salt): Todd is happy to be apart of Willy Wonka this year, and recently you may have seen him as both Fake Santa and Chadwick in Elf. Some of his favorite roles include Pugsley from The Addams Family, Finch in Newsies, Igor (pronounced Eye-gor) in Young Frankenstein, George Bailey in It's a Wonderful Life, Peter in Peter Pan, and Jean Valjean in Les Misérables (the play). Todd has been acting since 2013, and participating at the Barn Theater since 2016 when he debuted as Gaston in Beauty and the Beast Jr. When Todd is not on the stage, he is continuing his creativity through artwork. Aside from acting, drawing is another passion of his (you can find him at @sweeneytoddst on Instagram). He is always happy and grateful to be on the stage and working with his Barn family.
